

The Idolatry of Conservative Adventism

Tess Lambert 05-16-20

Part 2

So, in other words they're saying there's a Deep State working against John Adams and the Conservative Political Faction and the Conservative Religious Faction. He's going to say that Thomas Jefferson and those who support him, not just politically but also the liberal faction of Protestantism is under the control of the Bavarian Illuminati.

This is a real turning point. This is the introduction to Protestantism of conspiracy theories to justify their political Ideologies. He takes everything that is a threat to that Conservative Bastion. The threats are those Liberal Protestants, those Liberal Ministers growing in influence. The threats are the Thomas Jefferson's, the people who take Republicanism too far, the immoral people, the people with all the vices. He then summarizes and wraps all of those threats up in something that can satisfy that Conservative Bastion and he says that's all the work of the infiltration of Secret Societies into the United States, its the Illuminati.

“He harnessed the Illuminati threat for political means. He says two States were harboring the Illuminati Societies, it’s Virginia and New York.”

Why does he name those two States? He has no evidence for that but the reason he's going to say that Virginia and New York are harboring the Illuminati is because Virginia is the home State of Thomas Jefferson. New York was the home State of another man who had recently become the enemy of John Adams by writing a villainous letter that relentlessly criticized John Adams. New York was the home State of Alexander Hamilton. So, he wraps up all the threats of this Conservative Bastion of Protestantism who believe in this combination of Church and State, the Thousand Years of Prosperity and America as the New Israel. He says that the threat to us in each part is this Deep State where everyone is working together, the Liberals are working together behind the scenes, the Thomas Jefferson's, the Alexander Hamilton's there working together behind the scenes and it's the work of Foreign Powers to control us.

Alexander Hamilton

Founding Father of the United States

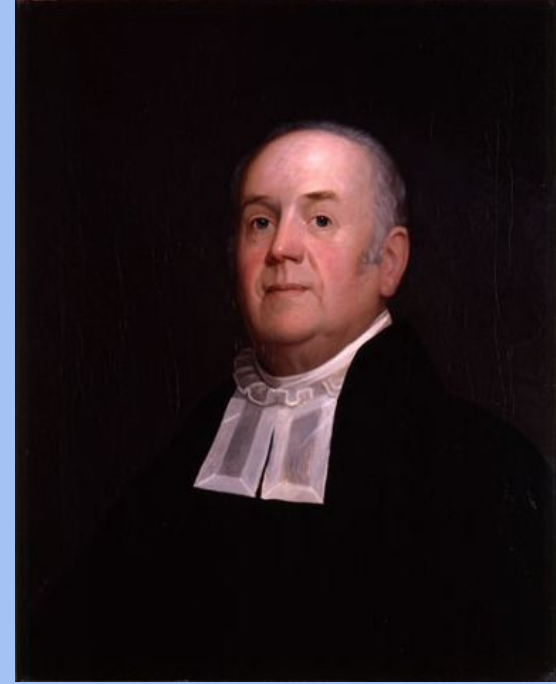

He then connects that to the Papacy and to France, he believes they are United and are doing that through the Illuminati. This created quite a storm, he does this in May 1798, and he repeats it stronger towards the end of 1798 when John Adams proclaims another Fast Day, he has another sermon and then he pretty much just becomes more radicalized in that view point. By 1799 he's just even stronger in his language. He claimed to have a letter from a particular man in England who had the ability to confirm whether or not the Illuminati was still active and also active in America.

There's two men now, Jedidiah Morse is leading this Conservative branch and it's particularly centered around Yale. But, there's this other branch and I believe that's centered around Harvard. So, you have these two key Universities, Yale University which represents the Conservative branch and Harvard which represents the Liberal branch of Protestantism. This Liberal branch was really headed by a Minister known as William Bentley.

He was very well thought of and Harvard educated. He became a member of the Liberal branch of Congregationalism, and was decidedly Liberal minded. He would share his Pulpit with Preachers from other sects, even if they didn't believe the same as he did, he would still let them speak. He harbored no political ambitions, he would tutor promising students and used his own salary to support the poorer members of his Congregation.

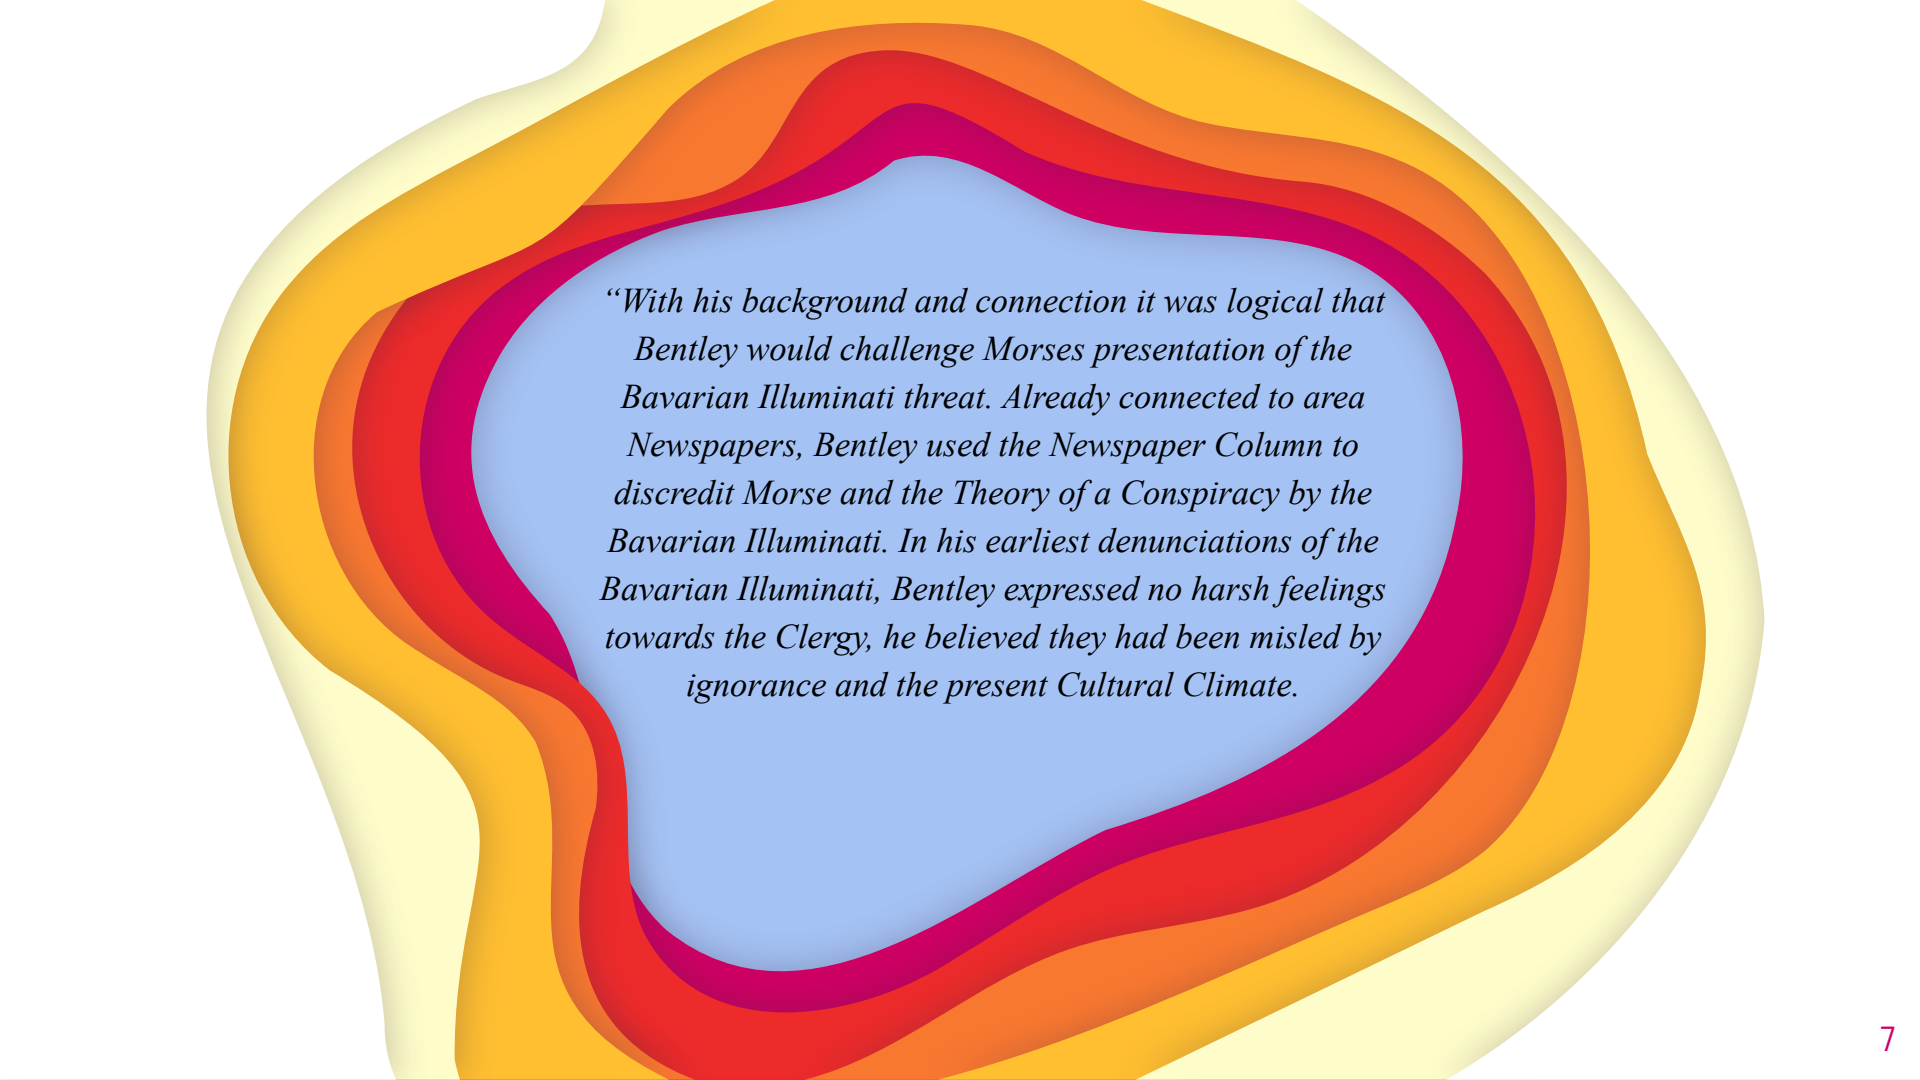

Twice Thomas Jefferson offered him a prominent position. William Bentley was on the Liberal side with Thomas Jefferson and Jedidiah Morse was on the Conservative side with John Adams. Thomas Jefferson offered William Bentley this prominent position but both times William Bentley turned him down. He was the antithesis of Jedidiah Morse, polar opposites.

William Bentley

American minister

He was an American Unitarian minister, scholar, columnist, and diarist. He was a polymath who possessed the second best library in the United States, and was an indefatigable reader and collector of information at the local national and international level. Wikipedia

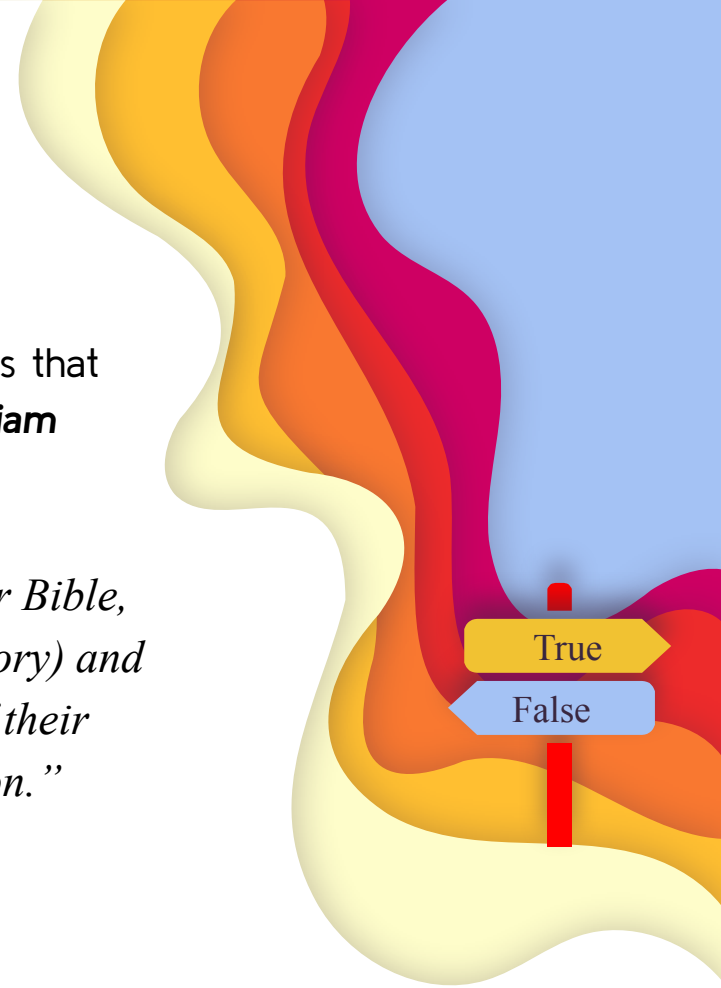

“With his background and connection it was logical that Bentley would challenge Moses presentation of the Bavarian Illuminati threat. Already connected to area Newspapers, Bentley used the Newspaper Column to discredit Morse and the Theory of a Conspiracy by the Bavarian Illuminati. In his earliest denunciations of the Bavarian Illuminati, Bentley expressed no harsh feelings towards the Clergy, he believed they had been misled by ignorance and the present Cultural Climate.”

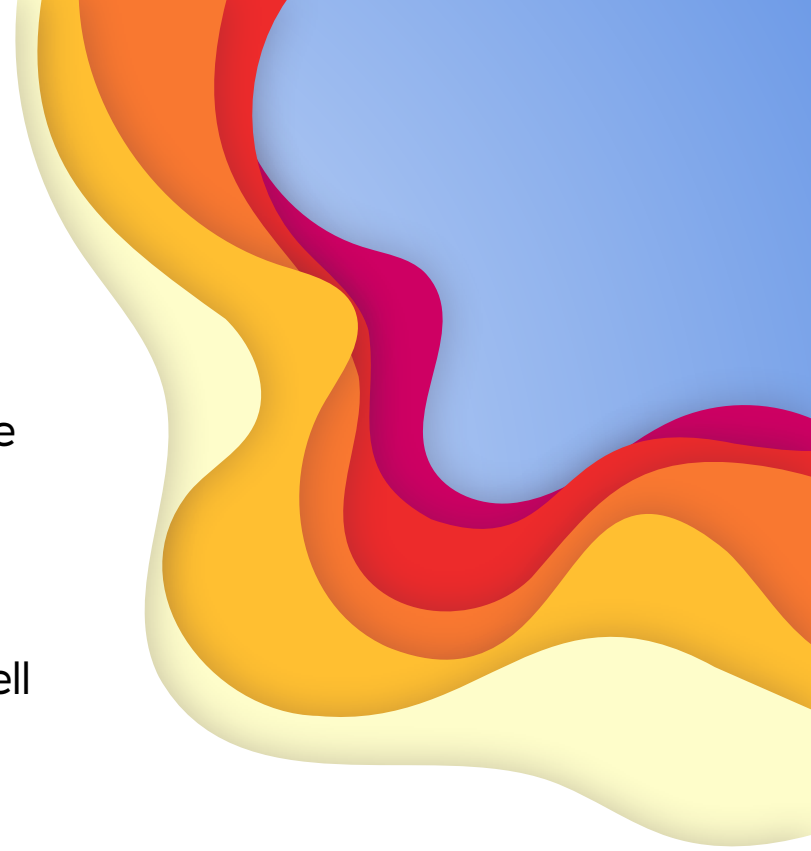

In early 1799, he published under the pseudonym Cornelius, a pamphlet entitled, “Extracts from Professor Robinson’s Proofs of Conspiracy with brief Reflections.”

It documented the various inconsistencies and illogical arguments that have been used to build up this Illuminati Ideology. Quoting William Bentley,

“But into this order, men will intrude, who have studied their Bible, (in other words those who are taking on this Conspiracy Theory) and not mankind for whom it was written. Who knows more of their opinions from dogmas than from history and investigation.”

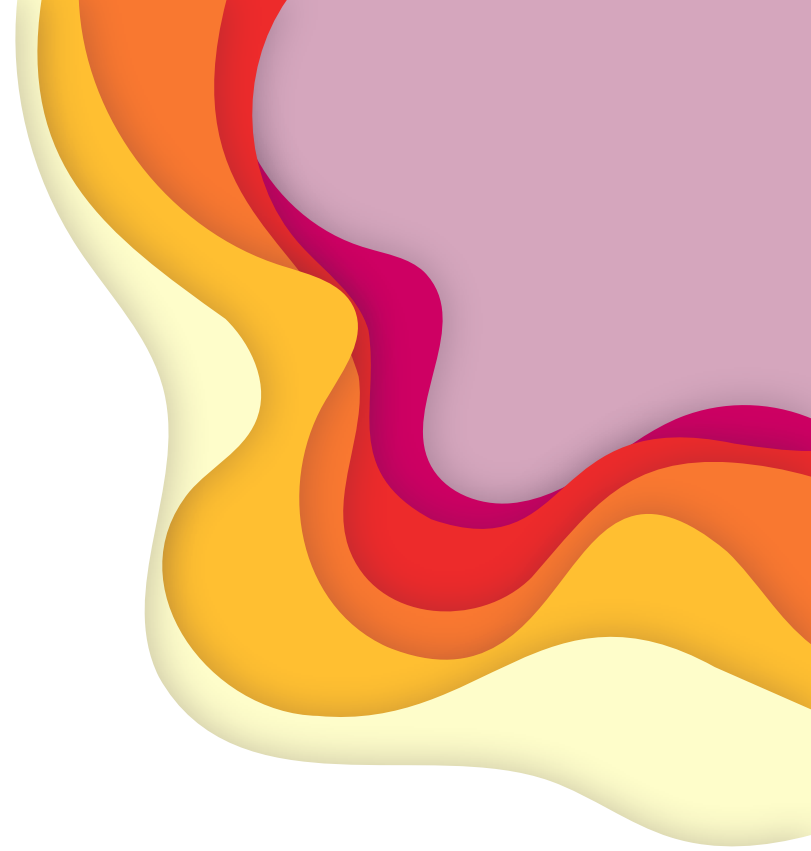

Bentley believed the Clergy suffered undue influence from unscrupulous and ambitious individuals and from their own personal ignorance and intolerance. Later on if you were to finish that thesis written about this time period, Jedidiah Morse claimed to have a letter in his possession from a man in England that would prove the existence of the Illuminati in the United States. William Bentley wrote to that same European man and said, “you tell me what you wrote in his letter.” Jedidiah Morse refused to make public this letter of proof, that he said, “he had received.”

Throughout this correspondence and at the end of this affair, Jedidiah Morse had been humiliated and really disproven. He claimed that he had evidence and then when he was finally forced by William Bentley to present that evidence it was discovered that he had completely fabricated it. While he had a letter, if that letter said anything it actually disproved his position. He refused to release it; he had said that it proved his position. He ended up quite humiliated by the end of this affair through the fabrication of evidence to support his Conspiracy Theory.

So, you have these Liberal and Conservative branches of Protestantism and this Revival. We've already said that we see this prior to 1989 and there's been a lot more presented on this than has been presented on 1798. We see Jerry Falwell, those Conservatives who have interpreted America as the New Glorious Land. They've interpreted that in such a way, not understanding Dispensational changes that the United States must therefore have Institutionalized Segregation.

Jerry Falwell is no longer willing to say “Slavery” but he has rejected the Civil Rights Movement and fought against this movement because Israel was segregated by race so therefore America should segregate by race. You have many leading Protestants of that time period that support the Civil Rights Movement, so again you have a split. You see that even now, there are many Black Majority Churches in the United States that do not support Donald Trump. There is this divide within Protestantism, it isn't all of Protestantism supporting Donald Trump, there is that split.

It's the Conservative faction who have identified with Donald Trump as their President but they began with Ronald Reagan. From 1981-1989 with Ronald Reagan and from 1797-1801 with John Adams they have a particular tactic for defending their political views and that is the conspiracy theory. It was the conspiracy theory in 1798 and it was the conspiracy theory that was also led in this history starting with Jerry Falwell and the Conservative Protestantism today.

I just want to spend a moment on the Illuminati...

Let's have a look at what history tells us about the Illuminati. They were created in 1776. If we were to see the Catholic Church in the Dark Ages, in 1773 what happens?

They abolish the Jesuits...

Which leads them to fail as a Church

They've abolished the Jesuits because they've lost a great deal of Political Power and this is all happening during the Enlightenment.

Why do we call it the Dark Ages?

Truth had been suppressed

Light had been suppressed but it wasn't just truth as in Bible truth, it was also any type of Science or in the field of Medicine, in other words anything that seemed to challenge the Catholic Church views of the world and our place in it and even our place in the Universe was being attacked and anyone who did that was persecuted.

For example, the idea that the Earth revolves around the Sun, instead of the Sun revolving around the Earth. Any type of change whether it's Political or Scientific, even the different versions of the Sciences that had challenged the Catholic Church's perspective was really being seriously challenged.

In the Enlightenment, the mindset of the Dark Ages were beginning to wane because the people were desiring to think for themselves and they no longer wanted the Catholic Church to prevent them from seeking light. It wasn't just on the Bible but it was also on these other Sciences.

It's out of this Enlightenment that you find the Illuminati.

It was founded by a man who was a Jesuit...

He was a Jesuit University Professor of Law. He realized that it was at a Jesuit University, it was controlled by Jesuits, it was funded by Jesuits, even though the Jesuits had been abolished they still controlled this University and every time he tried to teach something that went against the Catholic Church's Ideology, he would be silenced. Anyone who taught against the Catholic Church's Ideology in any area of Science, Law, Theology, Politics; etc. If it went against the ideology or undermined the Catholic Church's version of what the Earth should look like or what people should look like, they would find themselves without a job or demoted or somehow silenced and he began to get very tired of that mindset. So, he left the Jesuit Society and he decided to form an underground Society that could spread information to dispel the Ideology of the Catholic Church. I'm not saying that everything the Illuminati did was necessarily good but I want us to see the Truth compared to the Conspiracy Theories. The truth of its beginning is actually completely reasonable.

Enlightenment Era

These people were not Satanists...

These people were not Satanists, they were people who wanted to share Illumination or Enlightenment behind the back of the Catholic Church to prevent themselves from being silenced and losing their jobs, no matter what area of expertise they were in. So this became a Society for that purpose.

As it became more known, the Catholic Church fought back against that so he began to infiltrate the Freemasons. He became a Freemason and there he would start to recruit from Freemasonry into his new society, the Illuminati. This society only existed for about ten years.

The Illuminati has NOT existed since the 1780's.

About ten years later, they found the list of everyone who had joined the Illuminati and all their records and the society as a whole was banned.

Anyone who was part of the Illuminati was persecuted and the entire Society was shut down. There is not a shred of evidence that the Illuminati has existed since the 1780's

However, the conspiracy theories linked to that have become so strong. It began in 1776, and then in 1779 you have the beginning of the French Revolution. Jedidiah Morse taught, that the Illuminati instigated the French Revolution, and that they were the cause of it.

How do we know that the French Revolution happened or what was the cause of the French Revolution?

Great Controversy 281.3,

“Rome had misrepresented the Character of God and perverted His requirements and now men rejected both the Bible and it’s author. She had required a blind faith in her dogmas under the pretended sanction of the Scriptures and the reaction Voltaire and his associates cast aside God’s word altogether and spread everywhere the poison of infidelity. Rome had ground down the people under her iron heel and now the masses degraded and brutalized in their recoil from her Tyranny cast off all restraint.”

François-Marie Arouet, known by his nom de plume Voltaire, was a French Enlightenment writer, historian, and philosopher famous for his wit, his criticism of Christianity—especially the Roman Catholic Church—as well as his advocacy of freedom of speech, freedom of religion, and separation of church and state. Wikipedia

What is a recoil?

It's when you stretch that rope as far as it'll go in the opposite direction, in the direction of Tyranny

When that rope releases what happens?

It's going to recoil and go far in the opposite direction

As they find themselves degraded and brutalized by Rome over 1260 years, when they recoil from that Tyranny or find their freedom, they cast off all restraint.

“Enraged at the glittering cheat to which they had so long paid homage they rejected Truth and Falsehood together and mistaking License for Liberty, the slaves of vice exalted in their imagined freedom.”

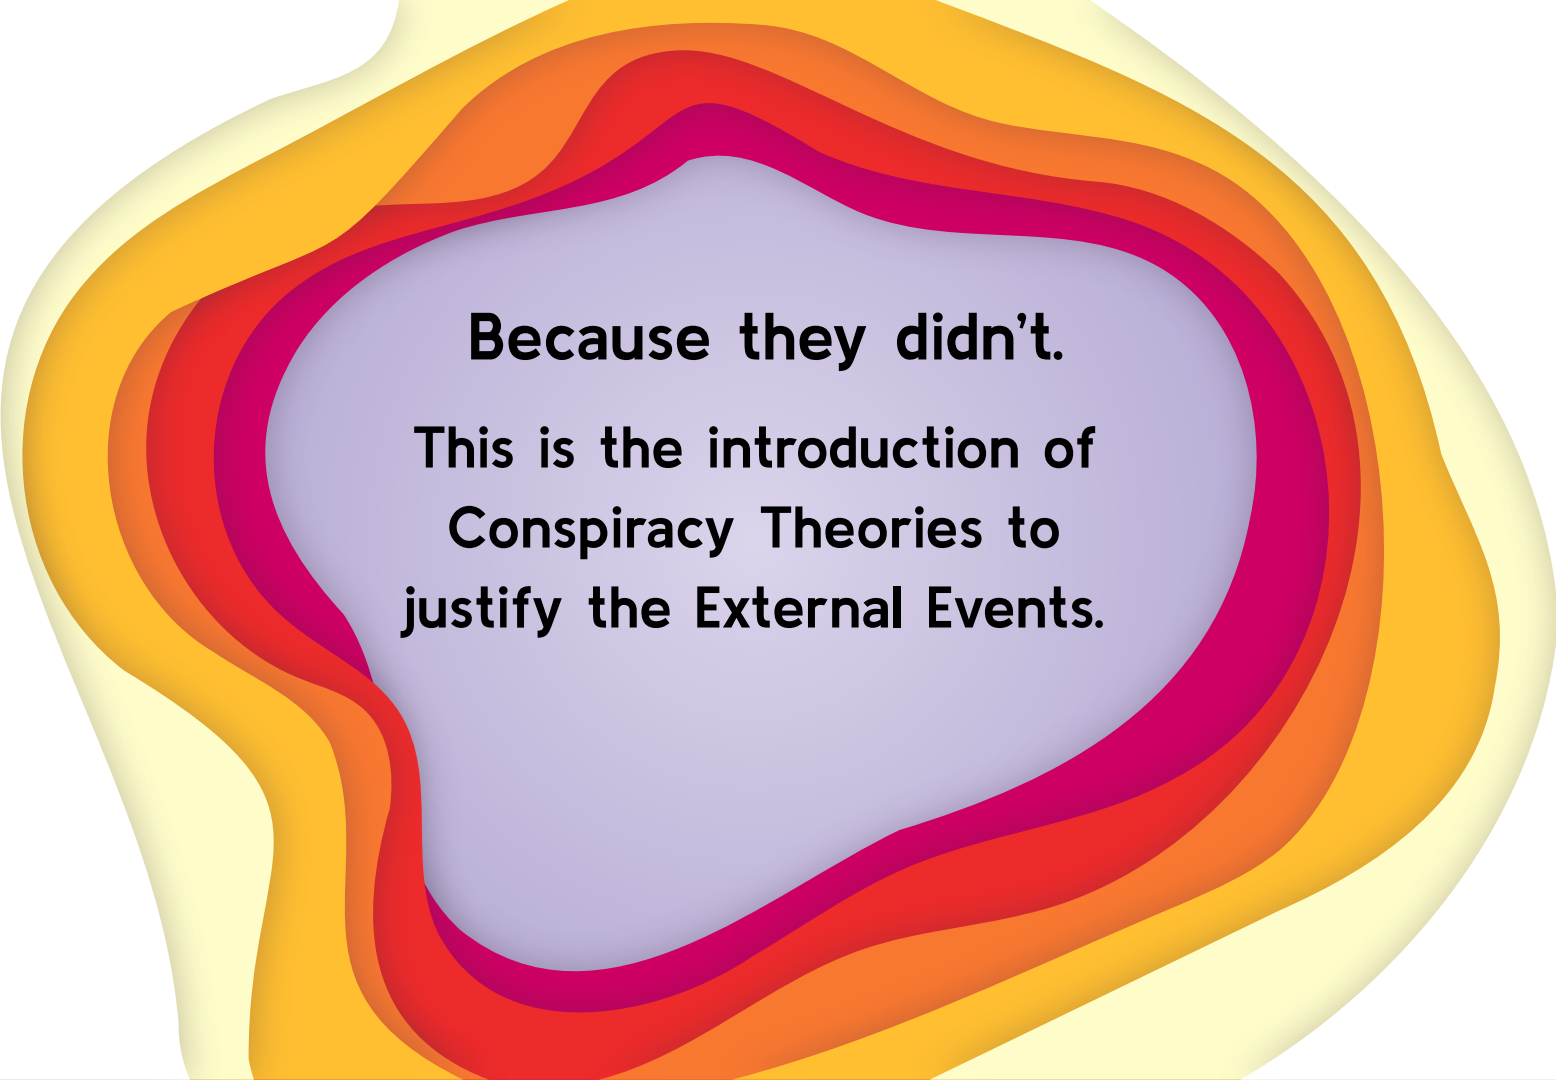

They had been taken by the Catholic Church for a long period of Tyranny, when that rope then becomes cut, they don't come back to a balanced position they recoil in the opposite direction.

They reject both Truth and Falsehood together and that was the cause of the French Revolution. You can go through all the writings of Ellen White and not once did she ever say that the Illuminati instigated the French Revolution.

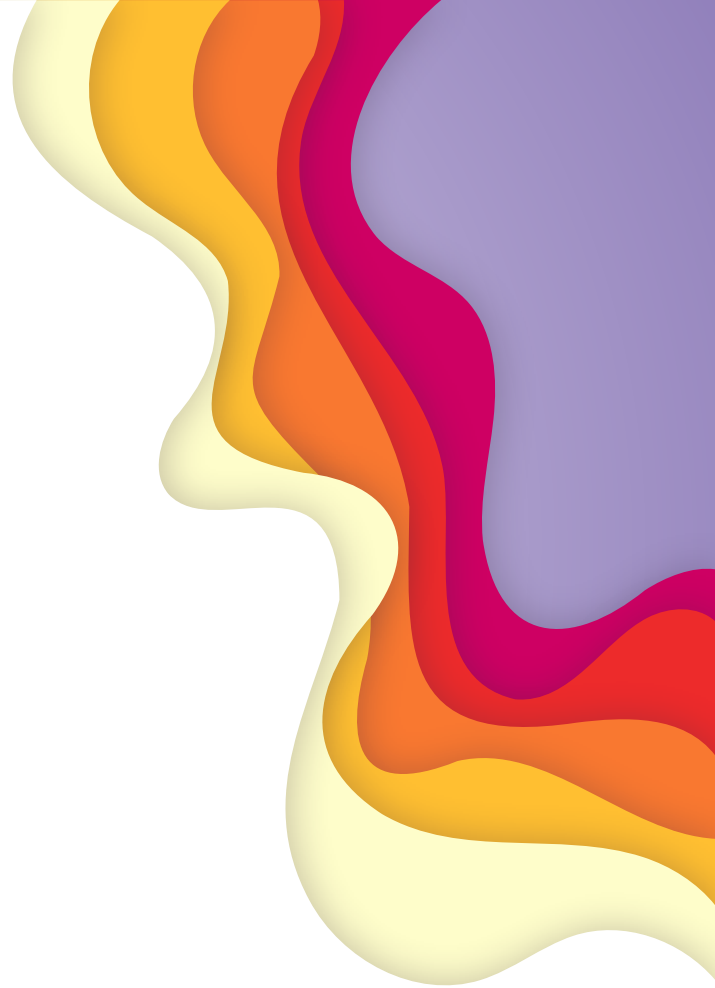

Why?

Because they didn't.
This is the introduction of Conspiracy Theories to justify the External Events.

- Were the Founding Fathers Illuminati controlled Puppets of the Antichrist?
- Do we find that in any of the writings of Ellen White?
- No, so why do we believe it?
- Why do Conservative Seventh Day Adventist believe in the Illuminati?

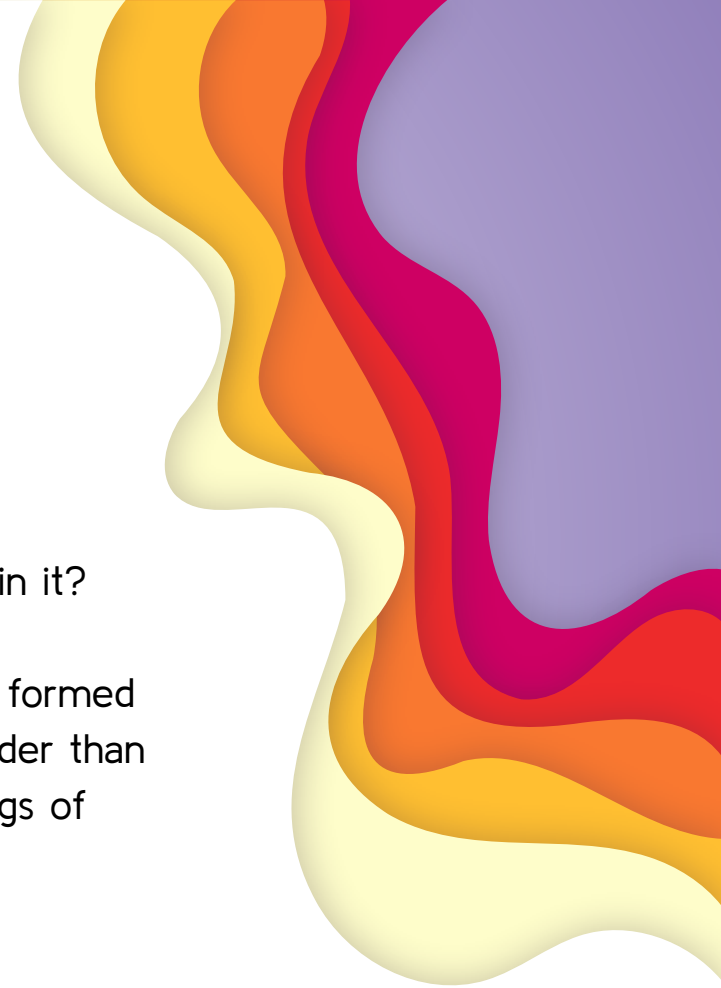

Conservative Seventh Day Adventist will say that we have Miller and our Pioneers. Did Miller and the Pioneers care about the Illuminati?

No, what did they say about the Founding Fathers?

What did they say about the French Revolution?

The same thing that Ellen White said, so why do we believe in it?

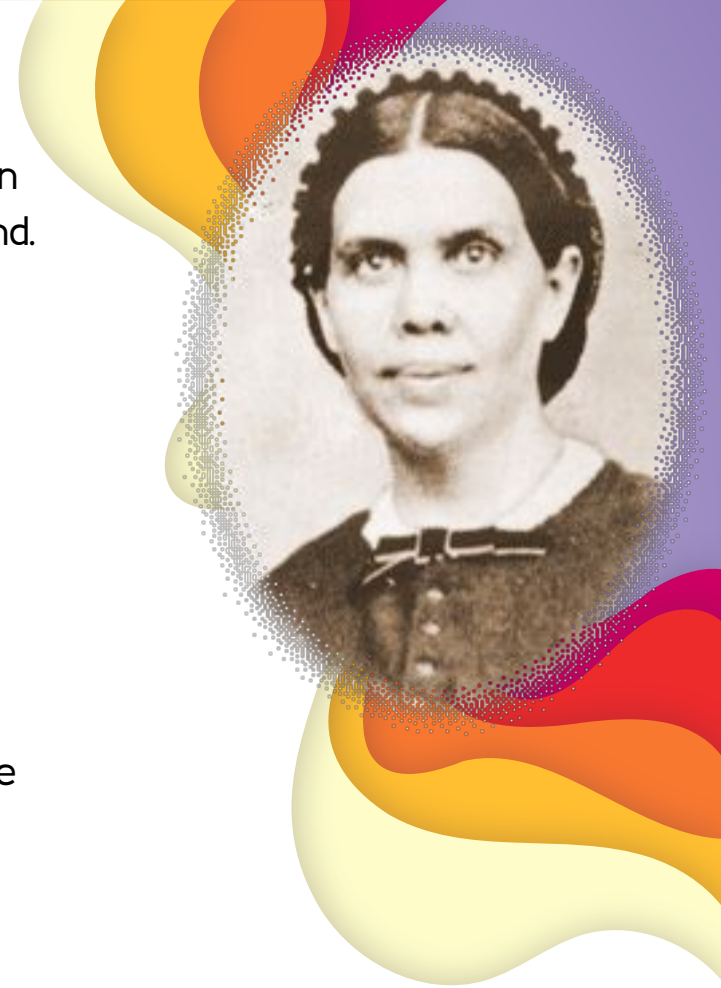

We have the same problem the Jewish Nation had. We have formed an idea of God and of His Character. However, it's much broader than that. It's also how we see the External Events and the workings of the Great Controversy.

We have molded it in the Idolatrous Image that we have taken from Protestantism. that we were supposed to have left behind. Why do we have so many Conspiracy Theories? Why do we have people who won't vaccinate?

Ellen White was vaccinated, so why do we have people who won't vaccinate?

Because that's the position held to by Protestantism. Ellen White lived in the day of vaccinations, she never once said it was a wrong thing and she went and got vaccinated herself. The people holding these positions are the same ones that are going back to the 1840's and saying that we hold to the writings of our Prophet.

Like when the Pharisees said that we hold to the writings of Moses, but our Prophet never speaks of the Illuminati. She never speaks of Secret Societies even in that context.

I want to look at a couple of quotes where Ellen White speaks about Secret Societies. I'll look at three specific quotes where she speaks about them because we know she does speak about them. The first one is SpM 28.1, and here she's talking about the American South,

“At present, persecution is not general but let the Southern element have word come to them of a nature to raise their excitable disposition and the whole cause of Truth would suffer and the Great Missionary field would be closed.”

The American Civil War has occurred, the Slaves have been freed, there's been the Emancipation. What Ellen White is identifying is that there is this window of opportunity to get missionaries into the South to educate and to teach the freed Slaves about the Gospel. This is the new Missionary field but she says be warned,

“Let the instruction be given to this much oppressed class, that the keeping of the Sabbath does not necessitate the working on Sunday.”

She's afraid that if these Missionaries go to the South and they tell those slaves that they must work on Sunday to prove their faith,

“If they do this all the powers of the Southern White population, who are the transgressors of the Law of God, will come down upon them and will find that Missionary field closed.”

We will face such persecution that the Black Community in the South will face such persecution for worshipping on Sunday, we will find our window of opportunity to reach them closed.

“Church Members, Priests and Rulers of the conservative Protestant South will combine to organize Secret Societies to work in their hand, to whip, imprison and destroy the lives of the Colored race, history will be repeated.”

She’s saying that Secret Societies will combine to organize against the Black people in America, to whip, imprison and destroy their lives. What Secret Society is that?

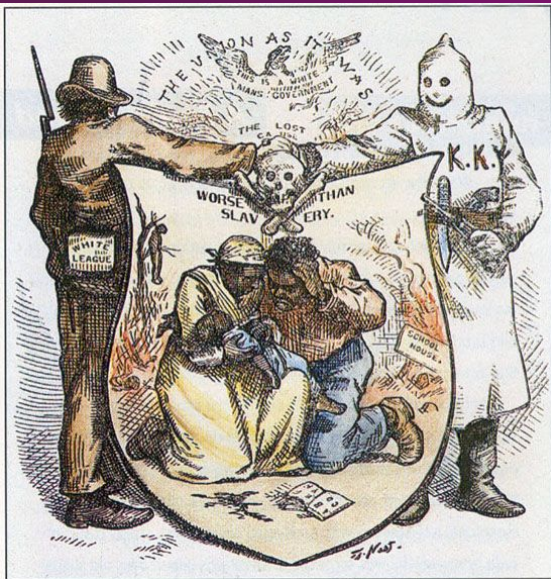

The Ku Klux Klan.

THE KU KLUX KLAN

The Ku Klux Klan's first wave began in the 1860's directly after the Civil War. The first Klan flourished in the Southern United States in the late 1860's during reconstruction. They then died out by the early 1870's. It became popular again during the time period of World War One. So, there are in particular, three waves of the Ku Klux Klan. 1860's and 1870's, the time period of World War One, and then the third wave around the time of the Civil Rights Movement. So between the first and the second waves there are other Secret Societies that formed.

The White League, The Red Shirts and also thousands of Confederate Veterans organized in what we call Rifle Clubs. Again, there are other Secret Societies between the first and the second wave of the Ku Klux Klan that did that work. Just to give one statistic. In the Presidential Election of November 1868, this is the first Presidential Election after the Civil War where the Black Community had been emancipated.

More than 2000 people were killed, wounded or otherwise injured in Louisiana alone just in a few weeks prior to the Presidential Election of November 1868.

Violence in SC-

Thanks Reconstruction!

- Left SC in a state of violence and controversy
- The Hamburg Massacre of 1876 (Aiken County)
- White Democratic "Red Shirts" coordinated a campaign of intimidation and fraud in order to win the election of 1876
- Resulted in voting irregularities for governor's election
- Two rival governments were established-one Republican and one white Democrat.
- Standoff between white taxpayers who refused to support the Republican government

Although Saint Landry Parish had a registered Republican Majority of 1071, after the murders no Republicans voted in the fall election because they were too afraid to vote. The Ku Klux Klan killed and wounded more than 200 Black Republicans, hunting and chasing them through the woods. Thirteen captives were taken from jail and shot, a half buried pile of 25 bodies was found in the woods.

The Ku Klux Klan made people vote Democratic and gave them certificates of the fact that they did. This is the first election after the Civil War, the Ku Klux Klan has formed and it has begun to do its work.

They were a Secret Society and they were exactly who Ellen White was warning the Missionaries about. Don't persuade the Black people to work on Sunday, to make this public step to prove that they are Sabbath Keepers. If you do that you will lose your Missionary field, the door will shut and these Societies will persecute them to such an extent. This persecution wasn't just of the Black People, if you were a White Person and you wanted to go down into those communities to teach, they would threaten you or even kill you. Every avenue to help the Black Community was controlled and faced great persecution from this Secret Society.

This is the first quote I want to look at, SpM 28.1. She's going to refer to a Secret Society = KKK, in this context.

When we think about the Ku Klux Klan, how secret were they?

Did we know the Ku Klux Klan existed because you saw a couple of Politicians on a stage exchanging secret hand signals?

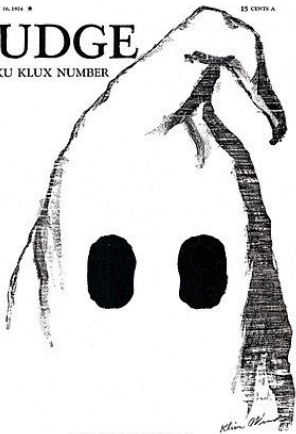

Or because you saw a document and there were some strange numbers you thought you could add up through the document?

How secret was the existence of this Society or what they tried to do?

It was NOT that secret.

It was NOT that secret.

ISSUED IN 1914 #
JUDGE
KU KLUX NUMBER

THE LITTLE BOY WHO USED TO HIDE BEHIND HIS MOTHER'S SKIRT

The individual members would hide behind scary costumes however, they would often be identified just by the sound of their voices in their local communities.

People knew who started the Ku Klux Klan, they knew who the Klan Leaders were, it was not that well kept of a secret.

Individual members might have some anonymity but the existence of this Secret Society was no secret. The purpose of this society was absolutely not secret and the Leaders of this society were not secret. So when you hear a phrase of a Secret Society, what is particularly secret?

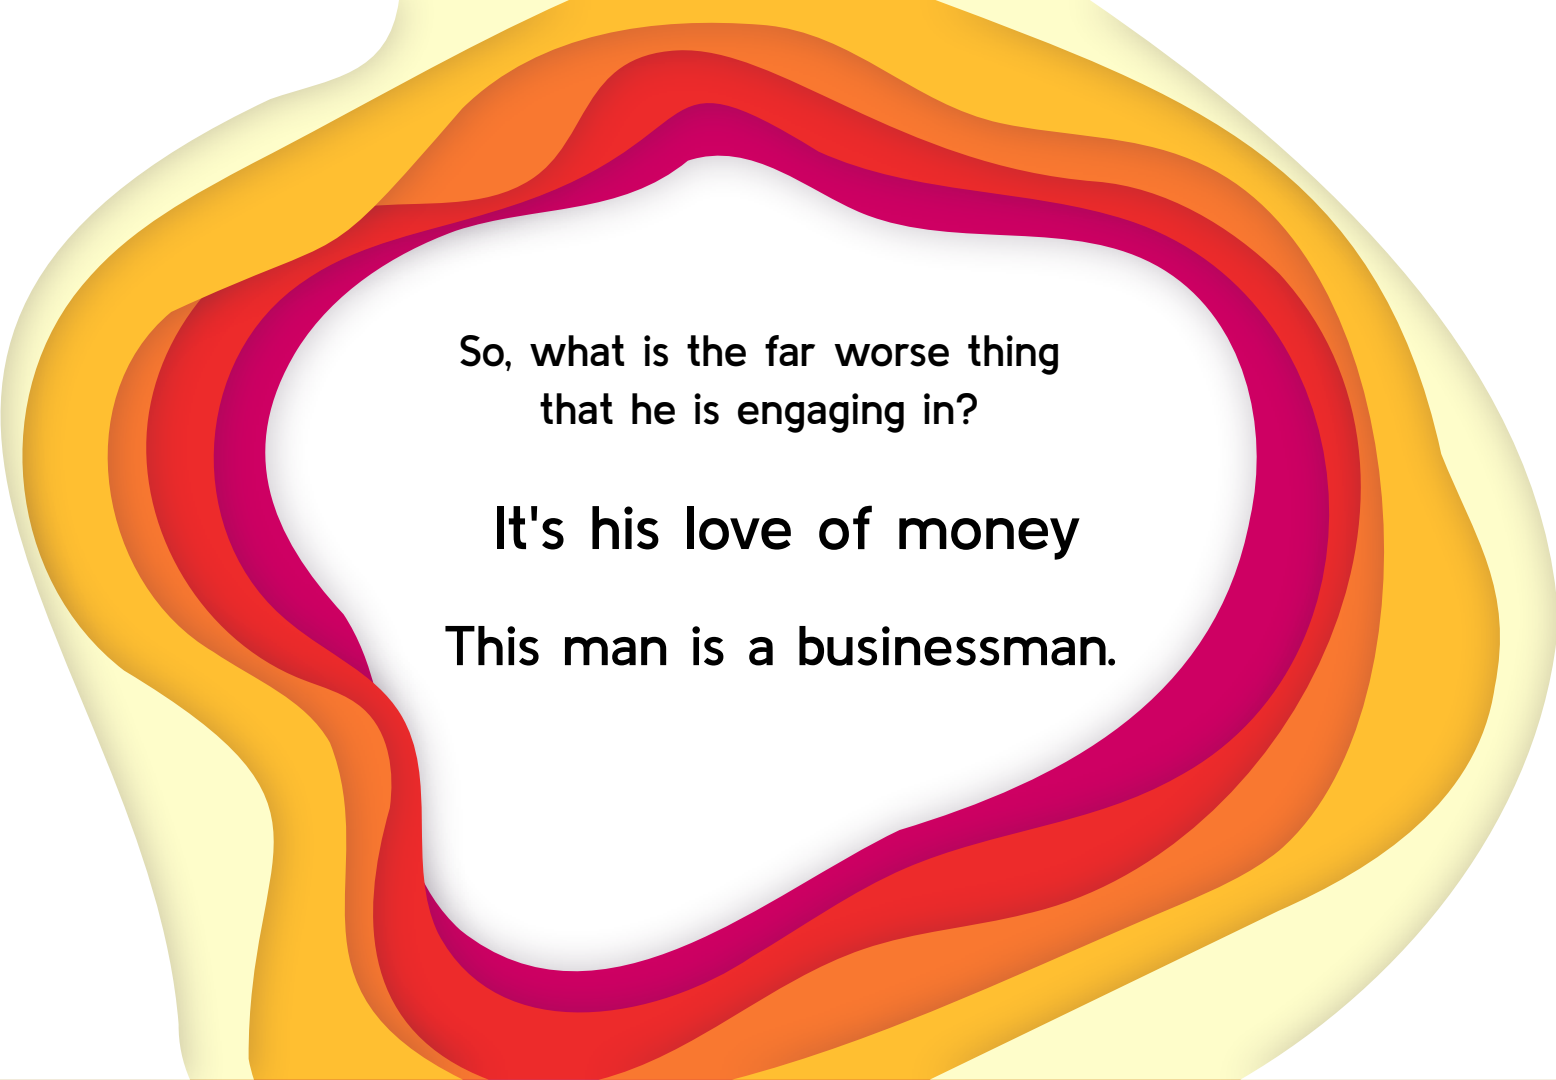

Two children wearing Ku Klux Klan robes and hoods stand on either side of Dr. Samuel Green, a Ku Klux Klan Grand Dragon, at Stone Mountain, Georgia, on July 24, 1948.

Perhaps some of their meetings, you weren't allowed in with a video camera, there is a level of secrecy that they do have. However, it's not the way we refer to Secret Societies today where we look to the Illuminati and then look for evidence that they even exist of which there is none. Quote number two is a whole passage, it's from 20MR 282.1.

She's writing to a particular Brother who is in a Secret Society and she's encouraging him to leave that Secret Society. As you can see the existence of this Secret Society and its members are not secret at all, she knows it exists and she knows he's in it. She even knows who the members are because he's one of them. So, acceptance into this Secret Society is not so secret, or the existence of it. She urges him to cut his ties. If you read through this passage you will identify why he needs to leave. I'm just going to share some key points in this passage, why she's saying he needs to leave. She says,

“It is a worse thing to lose faith in God in truth, in duty. It's far worse to choose your own way, to love money, love those things that minister to selfish gratification and indulgence”

So, what is the far worse thing that he is engaging in?

It's his love of money

This man is a businessman.

- Why do they form in these Societies?
- Why did the Mason's originally form?

They were Stone Masons, it was to create Business Connections and Networking. He has this Networking that's really centered around his love of money and that's drawing him away from God.

Could a child of God, an heir of Heaven be found in such Societies?

What's the problem?

It's the company he is keeping. If you were to go to a Pub to Network, you'd be in a similar experience.

“Could a child of God, an heir of Heaven be found placing themselves in such Society. The men who drink wine, prepare the way for further excess. The tobacco devotee worships an idol.”

What's the problem with this Secret Society?

He's entering in it to Network, it's built around his love of money and he's hanging around people who are engrossed in alcohol and tobacco.

“All the enjoyment you can have in this riotous mirth and the conversations of these men unfits you for the study of the scriptures.”

*Tabificum frustra clamas, dannasq; tabacum,
Quo sine nostrorum vicee nemo potest.
Ingluuiem vino, ventrem pedicibus excolis
Nec tabus, inq; tubo nabula nata invenit.*

A. Bruner pinxit. J. Saphorhof sculpsit. Edouard de Witte Excudit.

In this Secret Society, to Network with these Businessmen, it unfits him for his role to study and to understand. The conversations he's having with these men are not profitable.

“The money paid in to increase their revenue is God’s money, perverted to a wrong use. The tax you pay in your feast had much better be put into the treasury of God to advance his cause.”

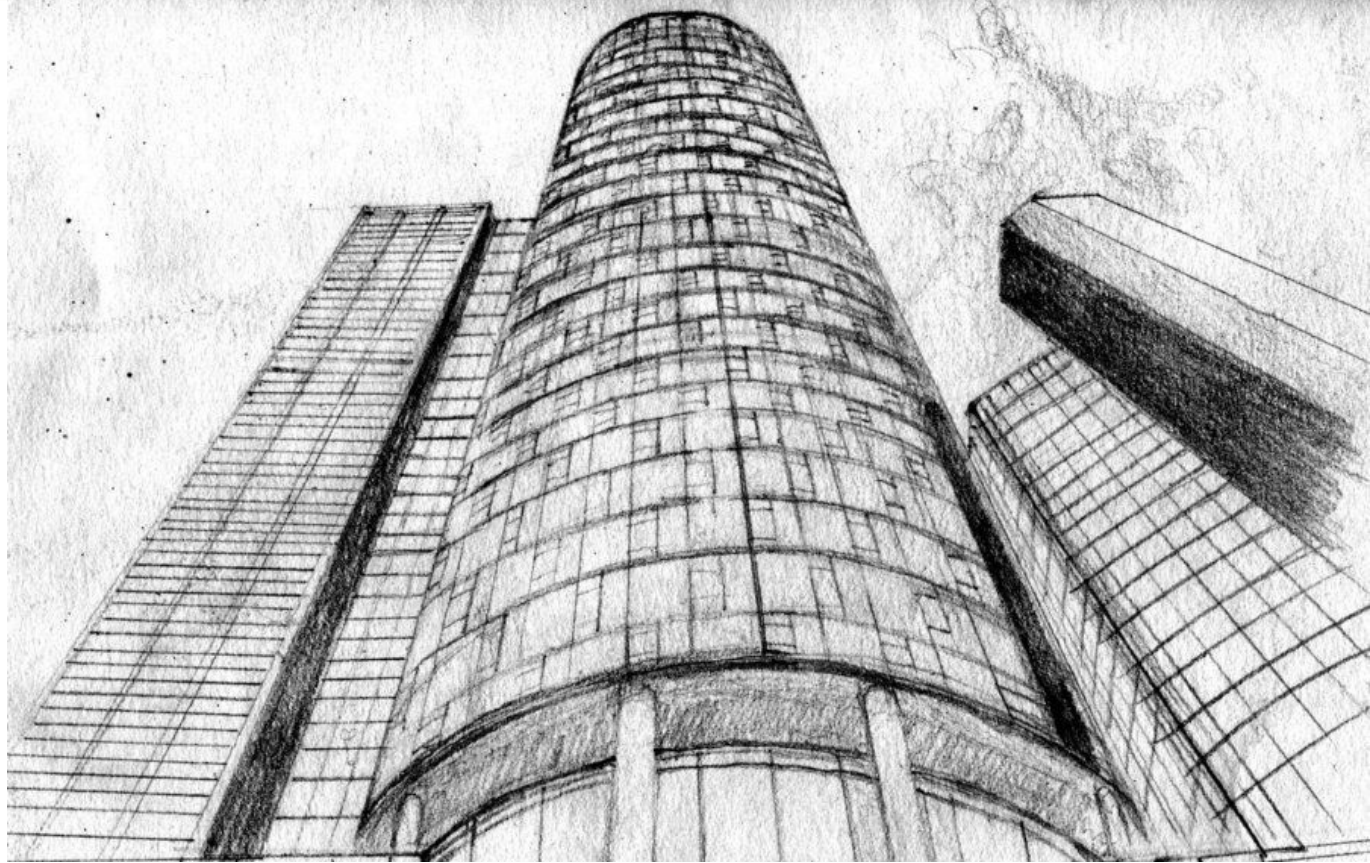

So she's saying that the taxes you pay to be a part of this Society is God's money and it's a misuse of your funds to pay to be a part of this Society.

“God has given you talents both in faculties and in opportunities. You are to employ these entrusted capabilities in His service. Years are passing into eternity and what are you doing, are you making returns to God in the improvement and increase of your talents for His service.”

So, he's put his talents in the hands of who?

The talents are being used for the furthering of his own business, not to enhance the work of God.

“God has appointed to you, your work, you are not to make your temporal business all absorbing.”

Because this Networking is all about his temporal business.
His induction into this Secret Society, is it because this Secret Society is a Satanic Ritual to overthrow the World Governments? No.

Is the existence of this Secret Society so secret? No.

That very fact that he's part of it isn't very secret.
The purpose of this Secret Society is not a secret.
It's for this Business Networking where all of these worldly men would get together to have a joke, have a beer, smoke their tobacco and discuss their Business opportunities. To be a part of that Society that wasn't much of a secret you would have to pay a tax to that Society.

There is one other quote, it's in Evangelism 622.2, it's titled "Disceptions through Secret Societies,"

"The world is a theatre, the actors, its inhabitants are preparing to act their part in The Last Great Drama. With the great masses of mankind there is no unity except as men can federate to accomplish their selfish purposes."

This is talking about Confederation. Men will confederate to accomplish their purpose.

“God is looking on, His purposes in regards to his rebellious subjects will be fulfilled. The world has not been given into the hands of men, though God is permitting the elements of confusion and disorder to bear sway for a season. A power from beneath is working to bring about the last great scenes in the drama. Satan coming as Christ and working with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in those who are binding themselves together in Secret Societies. Those who are yielding to the passion for confederation are working out the plans of the enemy, the cause will be followed by the effect.”

I just want us to think for a second, however many of us have grown up or perhaps still are deeply instilled in the world of Walter Veith. Everything he teaches about the Freemasons, the Illuminati, the Secret Societies, them all being friends behind the scenes, George Bush, Osama Bin Laden, the Pope, etc. Everything that he has if he wants to hang it on a quote, this is about the only one he would have to twist.

You won't find that justified anywhere else in inspiration.

What is she actually saying here? Is this quote enough to justify what Conservative Adventists believe and usually teach about Secret Societies and how the world operates?

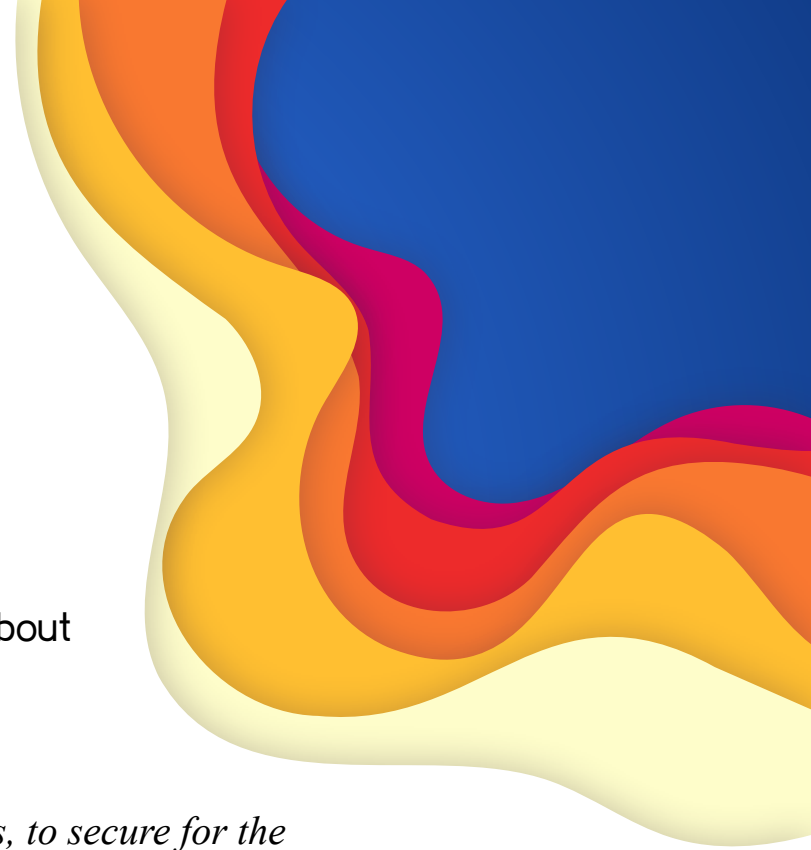

She says,

“The world is a theatre, the actors, it’s inhabitants with the great masses of mankind there is no unity except as men can federate to accomplish their selfish purposes.”

So, people will confederate, they will come together to accomplish their purposes and this can happen in secrecy. What is Ellen White referring to, what is their purpose?

Great Controversy 573.1, I think gives us some context about what she means by purpose.

“In the movements now in progress in the United States, to secure for the institutions and usages of the Church, the support of the State. Protestants are following in the steps of Papists.”

What is the purpose that they're going to Confederate?

It's to follow in the steps of the Papacy. That's the original Confederation. When was the original Confederation? Constantine.

There was a Confederation to bring about a purpose. Will there be a Confederation at the end of the world? Yes.

Does that happen at times through Secret Federacies or Societies?

Yes.

What combination of elements is this? Church & State.

So, you have a Confederation of Church & State. Who is spreading the ideas about Freemasonry, the Illuminati and the Deep State? Where are all of those Conspiracy Theories coming from?

Protestantism

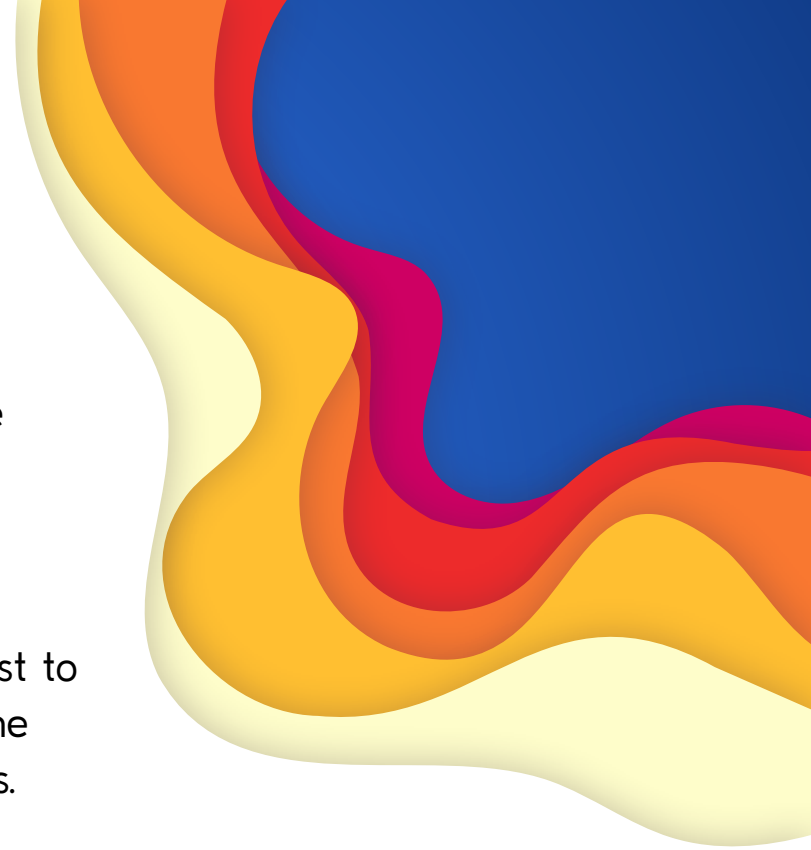

What's our problem?

We have the exact same Conspiracy Theories that they do. They are the ones telling us to be careful of the Illuminati. If the Protestant Leaders today are telling us to be careful of the Illuminati, do you think Walter Veith is right to say that the media is all false flags or that it's the Illuminati.

Who is he speaking the same as?

He's speaking the same as Protestantism. I want to suggest to you that there was a Confederation that fits in with all the other times that she would use the word Secret Societies.

In 2012 three men Confederated. Who were those three men?

Stephen K.
Bannon

Former White House Chief
Strategist

Stephen Miller

Senior Advisor to the President

Jeff Sessions

Former United States Attorney
General

These three men confederated in 2012.

Did they meet publicly? No, they met privately.

Privately they met and discussed their selfish purposes.
What was their selfish purpose?

To bring about the 2014 Sunday Law. They were going to overthrow the Republican middle of the road, a more balanced establishment and bring in a Far Right Radical New Republican establishment that would work with the Leaders of the Evangelical Churches in America. There was a Secret Confederation in 2012.

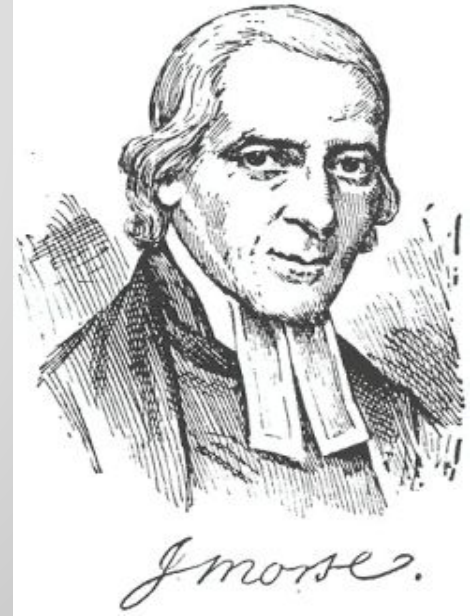

These three men met together, they sat down over a steak dinner and decided how they would turn around the United States and who they would use to do that.

They decided that they would work through FOX News. They would employ FOX News to spread their message. They decided that they would use certain radical elements of the Republican Party and that they would work with the Protestant Leaders.

They had a model that was to defend the Jewish Christian West that was both Political and Religious. They were doing this because they were afraid of the External Threats to the United States and they saw this as the only Salvation.

Just as Jedidiah Morse did.

Do we know that they Confederated in 2012 at the Breitbart Embassy because we saw Steve Bannon and Steven Miller do some type of strange handshake in front of the Breitbart Embassy one day?

Or because in one of Breitbart news articles online there were some strange letters or a strange logo in the shape of a triangle.

How do we know that they Confederated?

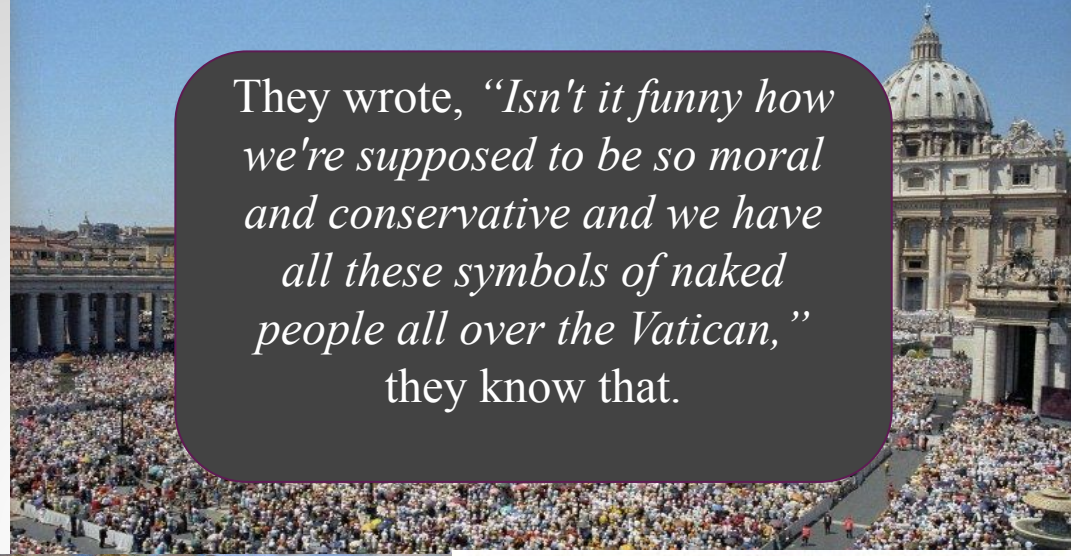

Because last year Steve Bannon sat down in front of a Frontline Journalist and told us, that's what he did.

That he met with these three men, that was his plan and that's what they accomplished. The idea of a Secret Society is never portrayed as it is in either Protestantism or within Conservative Adventism. Not by Ellen White, not by William Miller or former Millerites or our Pioneers.

We can't get that from them and yet as Conservative Adventists to sit in front of Walter Veith and feel that we are rich and increased with goods. That we have this special knowledge, that we know that the Obelisk in Saint Peter's square is a phallic symbol, who else knows that? The Catholic Church, they actually wrote it in their Catholic Magazine.

They wrote, “Isn't it funny how we're supposed to be so moral and conservative and we have all these symbols of naked people all over the Vatican,” they know that.

There's nothing amongst any of that, that should make us feel special because we've taken that from Protestantism. What Israel failed to let go of is their Apis Bull, exactly what they were meant to be removed from. The tool to remove themselves from that Protestant Ideology was Parable Teaching.

Today, we're doing the same thing, and we're removing ourselves from the Idolatry of Protestantism. And Conservative Adventists how ever much they lift up Miller and Ellen White, how ever much they think there rich and increased with goods, they are neck deep in Idolatry. They have formed God in their own image.

What image have they formed? The God of Protestantism.

If Christ was to come back today they would not recognize Him.

This movement has made some strange steps in the last year. For example we've ordained women. Just using that example alone, almost everyone in this movement comes from a Conservative background. Many of us from watching Walter Veith.

Why did we ordain a woman?

Did we do that because it just fit in with our Ideology?

We are taking steps that go directly against what our natural inclination would be. The reason that we're doing that is because we're allowing God to define Himself, to tell us what he is like.

We have stopped making God in our own image.

The Parables are telling us about the nature of the Kingdom and the nature of our King.

We find out that the nature of our King does not look like what we thought He would look like. He doesn't look like the Apis Bull, he doesn't look like the Ideology of Jedidiah Morse. When we find that he doesn't look like what we thought he would look like we let Him define Himself, and we follow in the steps of that Parable.

That's the power of Parable Teaching and the reason this movement is making steps that would go against what we might think would be the natural inclination of a Conservative Adventist.

Through the Parables, God is defining the nature of the King and who He is, Himself. We're not doing that for Him through our own Ideology taken from Protestantism.

We're going to close now for time. However, this study is not complete, if we were to go on with time I would want to look at those quotes a little more slowly and I want to have a look at what Walter Veith actually teaches and where he gets that from.

There is a Protestant Revival with William Bentley and Jedediah Morse and a split within Protestantism. There is more to the history prior to 1989, more to do with Conspiracy Theories and how the Protestants started teachings about the Mark of the Beast, the 666 and all these symbols.

There's a particular wave of Conspiracy Theories during the Moral Majority and the Jerry Falwell era that enables us to give a more thorough explanation to Walter Veith and the mindset that he carries on from Protestantism.

In Summary:

We lined up Ancient Israel and Modern Israel. We saw that the problem with Ancient Israel however it manifested itself, it was consistent. Their problem was what they wanted in a King. They tied that King to God as it was done in Egypt with the Pharaoh and the Apis Bull. God wasn't enough as he was with a Judge, they still wanted the Characteristics as the Apis Bull represented in a Nation.

Through Idolatry, first the Golden Calf, then asking for a King, then they furthered that at the split of the Nation, they set up a Calf at the North and South. Then as they were taken into Babylon they continued the same idolatry. They come out of Babylon, they lose the Idol but they keep the Characteristics of the Apis Bull.

When they come to the end of their history and Christ descends, they don't see the Apis Bull they wanted because they kept their characteristics. Instead they see someone meek and lowly and they were looking for a Conqueror, someone with courage and someone with an Army. Therefore, they could not recognize their Redeemer and they failed as a Nation.

A group was taught through Parable Teaching to see the nature of the King in a different light

Then we came down to Modern Israel, we showed how we came out of this period of Darkness and Idolatry and we also lost the Sabbath. Then God raised up a Messenger Miller, to draw us out of Apostate Protestantism. We looked at what was happening in Protestantism at that time. The Political factions between Thomas Jefferson and John Adams.

Within that you see the two factions of Protestantism, the Conservatives led by Jedidiah Morse and the Liberals led by William Bentley. Liberals supporting Thomas Jefferson, and I would argue that we take his position today. The Jedidiah Morse's who supported John Adams, the Conservatives how they supported their Ideology with these Conspiracy Theories.

In particular, the Conspiracy Theory about the continued infiltration and existence of the Illuminati. We saw how that was not the mindset of our Pioneers or our Prophet.

We have skipped some history because we have more to study about the Jerry Falwell era but I just wanted us to look at the quotes that Ellen White speaks about Secret Societies and how she views what a Secret Society looks like. How secret is it, in reality? What does the secrecy mean?

We began to touch on that a little but we have left some room to develop both our understanding of her writings on Secret Societies and also what was happening in Protestantism prior to our Time of the End that led them to have the Conspiracy Theories that we're seeing more than ever right now. Particularly in the time period of the CoronaVirus.

When you have Protestant Ministers putting out videos about Coronavirus being a cover for 5G Networks, all of that coming from Protestantism. Adventism feels peculiar and special because of those views we don't realize what we have taken on, which is Protestantism. We will complete this subject at another time.

The End
